Organisational Activities (since 2015)

- 2025 Co-organiser (with Andreas Bachmann, Ariane Willemsen, and Simon Meisch) of a Workshop on Ethics Consulting in Public Administration. The two-day workshop was held in Tübingen and aimed to establish what universities can do (better) to prepare students for jobs in ethical consultancy, especially in the public sector.

Susanne Burri
✉ susanne.burri@gmail.com

- 2025 Organiser of a Workshop on the Ethics of War at the University of Konstanz in February 2025. Participants included Eduardo Rivera-Lopez, Luciano Venezia, Edmund Tweedy Flanigan, Maria Lucila Tuñon, August Olsen, and Leandro Dias.
- 2023–2025 Organiser of the Departmental Seminar series (‘Fachbereichskolloquium’) at the University of Konstanz
- 2023 I co-organised (together with Melanie Spangehl, University of Konstanz), a two-day conference on Morality’s Reward to take place at the University of Konstanz in September 2023. Keynote speakers included Roger Crisp, Brad Hooker, Paul Bloomfield, and Guy Fletcher.
- 2023 I co-organised (together with Jennifer Page, UZH, and Lisa Hecht, TU Dresden), a two-day conference on Defending Yourself and What Is Yours, to take place at the University of Zurich in April 2023. Keynote speakers included Helen Frowe, Kimberly Ferzan, and Renee Bolinger.
- 2022 I co-organized (together with Francisco Garcia-Gibson, LSE) a one-day workshop on Climate Change and Rights Enforcement.
- 2016 I co-organized (together with Prof Dieter Thomae, University of St. Gallen) a two-day workshop on Philip Pettit’s book The Robust Demands of the Good.

Other Academic Work Experience

- 2023–2025 Dean of Studies (Studiendekanin),
Philosophy Department, University of Konstanz.
I am responsible for the quality assurance and student well-being within all of our departmental degree programmes (B.A. and M.A. in Philosophy, B.Ed. and M.Ed. (Lehramt) in Philosophy).
- Ongoing Ongoing PhD Supervisions.
Co-supervision of PhD students Melanie Spangehl, Alida Mühlbauer and Kevin Laule at the University of Konstanz. Melanie is working on the relationship between well-being and morality, and she argues that there are important limits to the “reconciliation project” that aims to reconcile the two. Alida is working on the rationality of emotions. Kevin is investigating the extent to which recent challenges from political anarchism hold water. Melanie’s and Kevin’s main supervisor is Jacob Rosenthal; Alida’s other supervisors include Jacob Rosenthal (main) and Wolfgang Spohn.
- 2016–2023 Past PhD Supervisions.
Co-supervision of PhD student Regina Surber at the University of Zurich. Regina developed a critical theory angle on revisionary just war theory, with a special focus on the problem of military conditioning. Her main supervisor was Francis Cheneval.
Co-supervision of Charles Sherwood, LSE (who worked on fair negotiation). Other supervisors included Mike Otsuka and Jason Alexander. I continued this supervision remotely once I left the LSE.
Co-supervision of David Coombs, LSE (who worked on social egalitarianism and business ethics). His main other supervisor was Alex Voorhoeve. I continued this supervision remotely once I left the LSE.
Co-supervision of Camilla Colombo, LSE (who worked on deontological principles and cognitive biases). Her main other supervisor was Katie Steele.
Co-supervision of Todd Karhu, LSE (who worked on issues related to the value of existence and rights against being harmed). His main other supervisor was Mike Otsuka.

Susanne Burri

✉ susanne.burri@gmail.com

2015–2019 MSc Philosophy and Public Policy Programme Coordinator,
LSE Philosophy Department.

I taught a weekly dissertation seminar and acted as the academic advisor of the roughly 30 students on the programme.

2017–2018 Guest editor, Moral Philosophy and Politics.

Special issue on Philip Pettit's The Robust Demands of the Good (OUP: 2015). Together with Nathan Adams. The special issue, with my introduction (co-authored with Nathan Adams) is published as volume 5, issue 1 (April 2018).

2016–2017 Departmental Tutor, LSE Philosophy Department.

I was in charge of the department's undergraduate degrees (Philosophy, Logic & Scientific Method; Philosophy & Economics; and Philosophy, Politics & Economics). I liaised with individual students, their academic advisors, and the school to sort out students' difficulties, chaired the relevant Student Staff Liaison Committees, and was responsible for degree-wide issues such as liaising with the UG Admissions team, organizing welcome and other events, general timetabling and exam issues, and changes to degree regulations.

Recent Public Outreach Activities

2025 I led a discussion about the value of goodbyes and the badness of death with volunteers working for the "Hospizdienst Thurgau". The volunteers visit interested families who are taking care of a dying loved one.

2024 I participated at a panel discussion on 'The End of Aging' together with the quantum physicist and artist Libby Heaney and the art historian Inge Hinterwaldner (KIT). The discussion took place at the Kulturstiftung Basel H. Geiger.

I co-organised an event aimed at the general public (especially people living in Konstanz) to celebrate Immanuel Kant's 300th birthday on the 22nd of April 2024. At the event, I discussed Kant's 'Schrift zum ewigen Frieden.'

I gave a radio interview on alternatives to the Ukraine war (WDR, Neugier genügt). The interview can be found online and is linked here.

I talked about 'Furcht vor dem Tod' at the 2024 Zürcher Philosophie Festival

2023 I debated whether there is a just war in 'Wissenschaft und Weisheit', an education programme organised by the Philosophy Department at the University of Zurich that is aimed at the general public.

I discussed 'Was der Tod mit unserem Leben macht' in a 'Sternstunde Philosophie' with Yves Bossart. The discussion can be found online and is linked here.
